All about Lola:

Lola is a confident and adventurous girl who is ready to travel the world. She looks forward to meeting new people and exploring the American culture, as well as growing as a person. She hopes to join a basketball team in the U.S. Basketball is one of her passions, but when she is not playing the sport she likes to go to the gym, go shopping, cook, or read a good romance novel. She loves animals and has a cat at home. She shares her home with her parents and older sister. She feels her family is very united, communicative and athletic. In the future, she hopes to study International Relations. Welcome Lola to your heart and home this August!
