All about Giulia:

Giulia, also called Giuls, is shy at first then becomes sociable and outgoing. She has learned about teamwork, discipline, and willpower from athletics. She loves music, and her favorite singer is The Weekend. She also listens to Spanish and Italian songs. She loves foreign languages and wants to become an interpreter in the future. She studies Spanish, Russian and English. With her friends she enjoys going to the cinema, to dinner or shopping in the city center. Her hobby is to watch movies, especially romance, Disney or the Gilmore Girls series. With her family she enjoys traveling. They have been to many cities in Europe and feels she has an adventurous spirit to discover a new culture and traditions. She is ready for the unique experience in becoming an exchange student to grow as a person and discover new passions. Share your heart and home with Giulia and apply to host today!
