All about Gioia:

Since a young age Gioia has been intrigued by foreign languages. She has studied them with a passion and has watched cartoons in all languages to understand them. She is very curious and loves to meet new people, explore other cultures and beautiful places. She has an extroverted and sociable personality and is always making new friends. She considers herself a good friend as she listens, understands, and then gives good advice. She loves to travel with her family or even alone. She loves animals and always has had many different types in her home. She reads to stay informed about current events, watches TV series, and loves to ski in the mountains. Help Gioia explore her dreams and apply to host!
