All about Francesco:

Francesco attends a technological scientific school and has an interest in becoming a doctor or engineer in the future. In his free time, he may draw or go out with friends to the disco on weekends. He also plays basketball about 3 times per week. Since his early years, he has played chess and traveled through Italy for competition. In 2015, he won the Italian tournament. Through these events, he gained a love of traveling. Since then he has been in other cities in Italy, as well as Europe. It has been his dream to travel the world and now he is ready to seize that golden opportunity. Share your everyday "American Life" with Francesco and apply to host today!
