All about Miriam:

Miriam desires to have a future career in International Relations. She is amazed at the fact that she can live on a different continent and experience another culture. She enjoys music and all the cinematic world. Her favorite films are La La Land and Mamma Mia plus the TV series of Gossip Girl and Pretty Little Liars. She has participated in ice skating, ballet, horsemanship and now she enjoys going to the gym. She loves making plans with her family and has a close bond with her little brother. She is going into the experience with no expectations and the desire to have fun and make it the best experience of her life, knowing she will learn so much and there will be downs she will have to overcome. Is your family ready to meet your new Spanish family member?
