All about Emma:

Being competitive and active is important to Emma. Her favorite sport is volleyball. She also enjoys card games or video games and plays sometimes with her younger brother. Last summer she volunteered at a camp and helped entertain children with exercise, face paintings, coloring and more. She reads English novels and is currently reading The House on Mango Street by Sandra Cisneros. She is excited to have access to an English library on program and browse through all the literature she can. She participates in school clubs like drama or debate with her friends and thinks they are fun and interesting. She is hopeful to make many memories and friendships that will be long lasting because of the exchange experience. Can you help Emma discover her dream of “Coming to America?”
