All about Edoardo:

Edoardo considers himself to be open minded and has enjoyed visiting places far from home. In the summer he visits Sicily for one month with his family. While there they enjoy the beach and see his grandparents. As a family they also hike in the mountains and visit art museums. His family is composed by his parents and younger brother. His hobbies included watching films and playing guitar. With his friends he enjoys spending time together and they love to play basketball. He went to Birmingham last summer and received the B2 level of English language certification. Start your application today to host Edoardo this fall!
