All about Henrique:

Henrique is thankful you are interested in accepting him as your “Host Child”. He hopes to share the best moments of his life with your family in the United States. He enjoys family activities with his natural parents and sister by walking the dogs, cooking, bike riding or traveling. He is passionate about soccer and loves to go to the stadium and cheer for his team or watch it on TV. He hopes to play on a team during his academic year. He enjoys meeting with friends and hopes to make new friends in the United States. His belief is that the program will have many positive effects in his life by learning to be more responsible, confident, and independent. Will your family host Henrique and help him become a “Citizen of the World”?
