All about Ginevra:

Ginevra is a sensitive and thoughtful girl who lives at home with her parents and small dog. Her half brother and half sister live in their own houses, but she has a close relationship to them. She has had many passions from art to sports. She has been an ice skater most her life and has modeled for ice skating clothing and jewelry, which has grown her passion for fashion. She also loves photography and captures photos of the sunsets or sunrises. She is considered one of the best students in her class, especially in English and math. Last summer she participated in a language program in London and met new friend from all over the world. She is eager to experience her American program. Share your heart and home with Ginevra and apply to host!
