All about Paul:

Paul stays active in sports. He has played tennis since 9 years old and is vested in his club. He has even volunteered in organizing and welcoming players from around the world in a tournament. He enjoys fitness by working out at a local gym and running a few times a week. Paul comes from a close knit family and participates in many family activities from cooking, gardening, games, to sports. He is helpful in the home with household chores or animal duties with the cat or walking the dog. He is passionate about aviation and cars. He dreams of becoming a pilot and if the weather permits he enjoys working with an ultralight. Looking forward to total immersion in the American culture, Paul feels the cultural exchange will be beneficial on both sides. Ready to host Paul and share your America?
