All about Burte:

Burte is a musician at heart. She finds joy in playing the piano. She has won first place in a couple of competitions.

Recently, she has also embarked on learning the violin. She loves to practice the guitar daily. She attends a school in which she studies contemporary languages and science, but her passion for music complements her academic pursuits. She cherishes the close bond with her large extended family. They enjoy outdoor activities and engage in fun games together. Ready to share your “America” with Burte?
