All about Carlota:

Carlota has a humorous and extroverted personality. She is sporty and trains daily in athletics. She competes at a regional level in the 300 meter hurdles. In her free time she enjoys reading. Her favorite genre is romance and adventure books. She enjoys going out with her friends, visiting her grandparents and traveling to nearby towns. She has a passion for travel and has visited several countries in Europe. She wants to explore the United States and its cultures, traditions and cuisines. She has been excited to participate in an exchange program since a little girl and started by spending 15 days in Ireland last year. This experience pushed her even more to come on program to the U.S. Start the application process today to share the “American Experience” with Carlota!
