All about Adam:

Sports are a big part of Adam's life. He enjoys competing on a volleyball team. He has been named the best player, which makes him proud. He hopes to join a team in the U. S. He also likes to play basketball. He lives in a house with his mom and younger brother that is next to his grandparents. He has a wonderful relationship with them. He has two dogs at home. He has some household duties, but also helps outside with mowing the grass. He loves to listen to music. He is convinced that the family that adopts him for a year will be happy and remember the time they spent together. Share your "American Spirit" with Adam by applying to host today!
