All about Marc:

Marc has applied to become an exchange student because he believes it is a unique opportunity to have an incredible experience and improve his English by 100%. He sees the positives as being immersed into a different culture and learning through it every day. He hopes his host family has the same desire to enjoy the experience. He is an active person that wants to follow his goals. He plays soccer on a school team. In his free time, he loves to meet with his friends and watch sports. Marc lives in a small town with his mom, dad, and younger sister. Join us in the celebration of cultural exchange by applying to host Marc from Spain!
