All about Vana:

Vana has been interested in becoming an exchange student since age 10 and hopes her dream will soon be coming true. Vana is mature and a serious student who always puts effort into her work. She is a bit undecided of her career path, but has considered becoming a psychologist and working with children in difficulty. Outside of school, sports are a bit part of her life. She has been practicing handball for years. She has weekly training sessions and a match every week. She loves to watch soccer on TV with Barca being her favorite team to cheer for. She also cycles with her father. With her friends she loves shopping and fashion. She loves to style her friends hair and putting on make-up. Vana has an older sister that lives outside the home. Vana helps in the home as needed and likes to bake cakes. She enjoys family time talking about her day, sharing meals, and watching a movie together. Will you open your heart and home to welcome Vana?
