All about Ester:

Ester dedicates her time to singing. She believes music is her safe place and would sing all day if she could. She loves R&B, alternative rock, soul, and the blues. She takes part in Girl Scouts and feels she has found strong bonds with people and nature by being involved in it. She also enjoys cycling around her town, walking, reading, or hanging out with friends. She works as a waitress at a pizzeria and has helped fund her trip abroad. She is a sociable girl and loves to be in the company of others. She likes to find a reason to celebrate and stay with people who make her feel good. She hopes to share the best year of her life with her host family. Are you ready to help Ester make her dreams come true?
