All about Katerina:

Katerina is a warm hearted person with many friends and interests. She enjoys sports, reading, watching movies, and is passionate about learning languages. She attends a school that is dedicated to foreign languages. She has English and French at school, but goes to private lessons for Spanish. She hopes to use her English skills and improve them on the program. She spends a lot of time with her family. This includes her parents and two younger siblings. They also have two collies. Her grandma lives next door. She loves to read, and her favorite genre is fantasy, dystopia and thrillers. She has traveled in Europe with her family and cannot wait to cross the Atlantic.
