All about Wichitra:

Known by her nickname, Tubtim, Wichitra attends an intensive English program at her school. She has always seen education as a big part of one's life. Her older brother had completed an exchange program in New Zealand when she was 13. Her family had also hosted an exchange student when she was just 10. It was a good experience for her family and she enjoyed speaking English with her host sibling. In her free time, she enjoys reading novels or watching movies. As most teen, she loves listening to music and dance. Ready to learn more about the Thai culture and share your America?
