All about Valentina:

Dear Host Family, my name is Valentina and I'm 15 years old. I live with my mother, three older siblings and three cats in a village in the southwest of Germany, near the French border. My dad lives in a small town 10 minutes away, but I see him almost daily.

Right now, I'm in 10th grade and plan on graduating in July 2022. After that I want to go to a vocational school, but I don't know which direction yet. In my free time I enjoy reading and try to read once a week and I try to work out a little every other day. but most of the time it only works on holidays.

I like to be independent, that's why I currently work in a supermarket twice a week. I also used to have a job as babysitter which I enjoyed, because I did that and have older siblings I'd be happy to have host siblings of any age. Because I have three cats and have had some other pets like guinea pigs I'd also love to have some sort of pet, but it's not a must.

I'd love to try new sports we don't have in Germany like cheerleading when I get to the USA. I also used to take piano lessons and still play semi regularly. I love music and it's very important to me. I listen to a lot of different genres and can't wait to find out how different the music taste of other countries and cultures like the USA are. I know life in the USA isn't always as shown in movies and I'm really excited to experience a "realistic" life that isn't as perfect as in the movies.
