All about Chloe:

Hi! I'm so excited to write this letter, I feel like my dream has almost come true! My name is Chloé and I am 15 years old. I like traveling, skiing, snorkeling, animals, cooking for my family and read while listening to music. like to watch sports at tv and also Jimmy Fallon's shows even if I don't understand everything!

I want to try a new sport next year and I hope that this experience will help be to become more mature, self-confident and learn the American culture. I am shy at first but have made a lot of friends since starting high school. I'm also open-minded and kinda funny. I also like to learn interesting things and I love "the starry night" painted by Van Gogh; my dad even draw his painting on my shoes.

I live with my dad who is humorous and make a lot of jokes but he's also a serious hard worker he's also a very talented cook. My mom who's kind, generous and a hard-working too. I really like animals and have a dog named Pongo. I already traveled to United States many times and would like to be a French teacher in the United States in the future.
