All about Michele:

Hello, my name is Michele. I'm 17 years old and I attend the third year of high school. I live in a fairly small village. I attend a focused institute in which I attend the materials chemistry specialization. My subjects are mainly focused with chemistry (organic and analytical), but I also have plant engineering and then the classic subjects like math, Italian, history. I'm a guy who loves the outdoors, hiking in the mountains, sports and volunteering.

As a sport I play goalkeeper in my soccer team in which I did 3 weekly practices and the game on Sunday morning. In winter instead, I love to go skiing with my snowboard, a sport I am also good at. During my free time I like watch movies/series, hang out with my friends and cook, in this last one I'm especially good at. I mainly cook everything but I prefer pastas. Ad exigency I can be a very good house man. I can do all household chores and always help around the house when needed.

I live with my parents, my 2 sisters, a dog and a cat. My 2 sisters Chiara and Giulia, one my twin 17 years old and the other younger 14 years old. My dog Maya, a 2 year old Golden Retriever and finally my cat Leo of an age too long to be measured.

Characteristically my friends describe me as nice, definitely outgoing and a person who likes challenges, as downsides well a little too selfless, and that I should think more of myself.
