All about Grisel:

Grisel is an only child who attends a science high school and hopes to build houses one day. She considers herself a charming and talkative person. She likes going to school and loves animals.

There are many things she gets excited about like painting and playing board games with her family and friends.

She finds American football enjoyable to watch and wants to go to a game. Grisel also likes badminton, basketball, surfing, and discovering other countries.

Is your family willing to open your heart and home to Grisel and help her explore our American customs and traditions?
