All about Muriel:

Muriel considers herself a bit shy but independent person. She opens up once she gets to know you and is more outgoing.

She has a love of sports and plays with her friends in her free time but school studies keeps her from joining sports at school. She is eager to try a sport while on program as she likes to stay active.

Muriel is originally from Germany and is eager to share her blended cultures with her new host family. She also likes to cook and looks forward to introducing some new dishes.

Is your family willing to open your heart and home to Muriel and help her explore our American customs and traditions?
