All about Gabriele:

Gabriele's passion is volleyball. He is vice captain, setter and spiker on his team and competes in championship matches. He is also an assistant coach for an under 13 women's volleyball team locally.

When not doing volleyball or training he participates in Scouts and has obtained 3 specialties in his squad and was deputy squadron leader. He has been in Scouts for 10 years. He also draws, goes horseback riding, and does photography in his free time especially wildlife, nature and street photography.

Gabriele also cooks once a week for his family, is very close to his little sister, goes fishing with his dad, and loves playing with his big dog and 2 cats. He loves animals and being in nature!
